Incorporation Study

10 CENTS

Chamber of Commerce Sponsors Intern From Coro Foundation

BY BETTY BRANCH

Uttered aloud, the mere word "incorporation" is apt to raise hackles and start the shouting in any rapidly growing small community such as Carmel Valley.

Each time a group of residents profess dissatisfaction with the County's administration in some type of community service, the question of incorporation arises. As a topic of argument it is therefore perennial, but in Carmel Valley to date the arguments have been based, necessarily, entirely on conjecture.

Within the next couple of months, however, Carmel Valleyites will have the privilege of arguing on a more informed basis.

On March 14 an Intern in Public Affairs with Coro Foundation will come to Carmel Valley to spend 6 weeks making a study on the pros and cons of incorporation.

Michael F. Silberstein, the Intern who has chosen Carmel Valley for his area of study, comes here at the request of the Chamber of Commerce, which several months ago sent a project proposal to the foundation. (For more complete information on what the foundation is and how the projects are chosen, see articles on pages 2 and 3, of this issue.) Tom Hefling, Mark Starr, and Al Fry comprise the committee which made the proposal. The Chamber of Commerce has never voted on the question of incorporation, but decided, when the issue was raised again and again, that a definitive study of the question -- pro and con -- would be useful to the community.

Silberstein, 22 years of age, graduated from Pomona College in June, 1963, and has since been studying at Coro. Currently engaged in a study for Ampex Corporation, he is due to arrive in Carmel Valley on April 14 and will remain for approximately 6 weeks.

Hefling said that several motel owners who belong to the Chamber have "promised cooperation" is providing a place for Silberstein to stay. Hefling said he intended to ask some of the other Valley organizations for assistance in meeting some of the other expenses which will be incurred.

Pony League Tryouts

Saturday morning at 9:00 a.m. behind Carmelo School, boys 13 to 14 years of age may try out and sign up for the "Broncos", Carmel Valley's Pony League baseball team which engages in Peninsula wide competition throughout the season.

There will be a second tryout on April 18.

Lt. Joe Coleman of the Naval Postgraduate School will be coach of the Broncos this year. Boyd Huff is Pony League district commissioner for Carmel Valley.

PLANCOM CONTINUES ALCAN PROPOSAL

BY DOROTHY REED

"Quietest Carmel Valley group I've ever seen," commented Planning Commission Chairman Keith Evans last week as the Commission continued the proposal of Alcan Pacific Co. for a residential subdivision of 329 units on 44 acres of a 329-unit site across the Valley Road from Via Petra. Commissioners agreed to tour the site and study the correspondence relating to the application before the next hearing set for April 28. Approximately 30 Valley citizens attended.

All speakers, including attorney Myron Etienne who presented the application on behalf of Alcan Pacific, gave the impression that they were deferring their major arguments in view of the promised continuance and field trip, and that the issue would be more determinedly joined later.

Col. George Brown, as president of the CVPOA, represented Valley residents in protesting the project; he said that the views of his organization had been made clear in a 4-page letter sent to all the Commissioners and that the field trip should clarify the issues for everyone. Other speakers were

New Series

Playday At Trail & Saddle Sunday

So well attended and enjoyed were the two recent Playdays conducted by the subteen members of the CV Trail & Saddle Club, that a series of seven more have been planned for this summer--the first one this Sunday.

These will all be "open" events, meaning that non-members of the club may enter. Ribbons will be given to members or visitors for 1st to 5th place, but in addition points acquired will accrue toward high point awards for the series. Among the awards will be two new saddles, two silver belt buckles, saddle blanket, and gift certificates.

Starting time will be 11:00, with entries to be made on the club grounds on the day of the events.

Simple refreshments and snacks will be available at all the Playdays. Admission to the club grounds are free to all and spectators are encouraged. To reach the club, drive on Carmel Valley Road to Boronda Road (landmarks: Los Laureles Lodge and Porter Marquard Realty). Turn south, toward the River, to Garzas Road, Cross bridge and drive to end of Garzas Road.

Entry classes will be for age groups 12 and under and 12 to 18. Those over 18 may ride but no points will be given.

Besides next Sunday, April 12, dates for the Playdays are scheduled as follows: May 3, 17 and 31; June 28; July 26; August 30.

Entry fee is $1 for club members, $3.50 for non members. A committee headed by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Young is in charge, and further information may be obtained by calling the Youngs at OL 9-2714.

Last Chance to Register

Tomorrow, Thursday, April 9, is the closing day for registration in order to vote in the party primaries June 9. To be eligible to register, individuals must be 21 years of age by the election date, a year-long resident of California and have lived 54 days in the county.

Miss Dorothy Caton of Village Rd. is an official registrar and may be telephoned at OL 9-2355. Valley residents may also register in Carmel, Monterey or elsewhere in the county. There is no requirement that registration take place in one's own voting area.

Mrs. Larkey's Retirement Gift

A committee composed of Mrs. Edgar Leslie, Mrs. William Wellborn, Mrs. Edwin Powers and Luis Wolter is collecting funds for a gift for Mrs. Helen Larkey, who will be retiring from teaching this year. Mrs. Larkey has taught at Carmelo School for 17 years.

"We just wanted to do something for her," members of the committee said. "She has done so much for so many." The committee has a very good idea of what they think the gift should be, but they aren't telling the newspapers, for it's to be a surprise!

Interested donors may get in on the secret by asking one of the committee members.

Donations can be mailed to Mrs. Powers in c/o Carmelo School--or they may be left at the school, where Mrs. Powers is secretary, or at Wolter's Hacienda Market.

The gift will be presented at a reception to be held at the school on May 24. It is earnestly suggested that all parents of Carmelo students, present and past, mark their calendars now.

Letter to the Editor

Hacienda Carmel

Dear Mrs. Branch,

Your editorial of last week served to remind me that I am a property owner in Carmel Valley; and the very loyal response printed in the current issue reminds me that I have procrastinated in sending my dues for membership in the CVPOA. So here is my check.

I fell in love with the Valley and its environs on sight a little over a year ago, and have been much in sympathy with the work of the Association, of which I read with great interest... Would that every resident here at the Hacienda were at least a paying member!

Sincerely,

Mrs. E. Fulton Conger
(Your check has been forwarded to the CVPOA, Box 157, CV -- and thanks for your good words. --Ed.)

BITS 'N' PIECES

"What is that building on your front page?" demanded an irate reader via telephone shortly after the April 1 issue of the Outlook appeared on the stands. No news story explained the presence of the photo, but it was topped by a headline announcing, "New Development in Lower Valley."

"That is the UN building," he replied, chuckling.

"Are you SURE?"
We said we were very sure. It's a side view, not so familiar as the usual photos of that building, taken from the front with vast expanses of windows showing. This particular shot was taken by George T.C. Smith two summers ago when he accompanied Pam Gamble as her personal photographer during her travels as a Miss America contestant. All this we explained patiently.

"It still looks like a power plant to me!" our irate Reader concluded.

We told her it was really an April Fool Joke.

"You rascals!" she chided. "I don't know whether we ought to advertise with you or not!" The ad in question is still in the Outlook this week, and we leave you to guess which of our business people is such a commendably determined protector of the Valley scene.

There are 2 Mrs. Ollasons in Carmel Valley. Mrs. Irving Ollason of La Rancheria (Louella) is the chic outgoing president of the CV Women's Club. Mrs. Myrtle Ollason of the lower Valley is the warm-hearted lady whom the Wolter brothers call their "adopted mother."

Recently the presidents of the CVPOA, CV Kiwanis, CV Chamber of Commerce, and CV Women's Club jointly wrote a letter to the board of supervisors suggesting that "a greater slice of the tax pie should be allocated to police protection than is currently the practice..." The Outlook printed the letter last week. For some obscure reason (nobody caught the error, though the letter went through a number of hands) the letter was typed with the name of Mrs. Myrtle Ollason rather than that of Mrs. Louella Ollason. Everybody is sorry -- and no offense meant, as it were! BB

What Is An Incorporation Study?

To give residents a preview of what may be expected from an incorporation study (as announced on our front page this week), we looked one over which was made in 1962 by a Coro intern, David Davelaar, for the Burlingame Hills Improvement Association in the Burlingame Hills Area on the San Francisco Peninsula.

Said the introduction, "It is hoped that this survey will remove from the area of speculation those facts which can be made clear and thus provide a basis upon which the residents... can make an intelligent decision as to their future as a community."

"This report is necessarily a starting point; there remain many questions which cannot be fully answered until such time as the people take the steps to determine their future as a community..."

Subjects treated in this report include a population study (based on registered voter count, P.G.&E. and water meter count, etc.) and reasons for AND against incorporation.

Questions which the report pursued and essayed to answer included:

What services would a new city provide? What are the services now? What would they cost under incorporation? What agencies now provide public works? Where would the money come from were the community to incorporate?

There is also an estimated budget for a theoretical "first year of operation", an estimated homeowner's tax cost, and an estimate of the costs of incorporation.

If even part of this material can be intelligently gathered and compiled for Carmel Valley, many interesting questions will be answered for many interested people.

Why Chamber Thinks Study Would Benefit Community

"There has been a great deal of discussion on and off regarding the formation of various types of service districts to solve various kinds of problems here in the Valley," explained Tom Hefling, chairman of the Incorporation Feasibility Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

"It would be a shame, as the years went by, if we formed several of the districts and then later discovered it would have been more economical to have incorporated in the first place... Actually, of course, despite all the discussion, there are few facts on which any of us is able to form opinions. It is our hope that the study will give us more facts to consider so that the choices which residents will be making in the next few years will be on a more informed basis.

How Did Mike Choose Carmel Valley?

Michael Silberstein, 22-year old Intern in Public Affairs now studying at Coro Foundation, who will make an Incorporation Feasibility Study for Carmel Valley within the next two months, got his first glimpse of Carmel Valley when he attended the recent rugby matches held at Carmel Junior High School. That's what Mike told Tom Hefling, chairman of the committee which is arranging for Mike's visit under the sponsorship of the Carmel Valley Chamber of Commerce.

During a telephone conversation last week, Hefling reports, "I told the young man we were delighted that he was coming and he said he thought he was probably even more excited."

Silberstein further explained, "I'm young, single, and have very few responsibilities or commitments as yet. Carmel Valley -- in fact the entire Monterey Peninsula -- is an extremely attractive community. The idea of going into a community totally strange to me, using the skills I have been taught to learn as much about the area as I can, getting a chance to do something that I hope will be of service to the community... Well, it's just a tremendously exciting opportunity!"

What is Coro Foundation? How Does It Work?

Coro Foundation has been responsible for incorporation studies made in Woodside, Brisbane, Saratoga, Santa Rosa, Tiburon, Novato -- and many other California communities. On the basis of these studies and other factors, some of the communities later incorporated; some did not.

Coro is a non-profit organization founded in 1942 "for education and research in public affairs". Its chief function is to educate outstanding young people for public service, but as part of their course of study these young people perform public service projects which "usually prove to be of genuine benefit...as well as providing actual job experience."

Graduates of the foundation have later gone on to hold such positions as treasurer of the United States, Vice Consul of the U. S. State Department, Deputy Director of Finance in the State of California, and so forth.

Each year Coro chooses a maximum of one dozen interns for each of its two offices (one in San Francisco, one in Los Angeles.) Usually graduating college seniors, the applicants are chosen on the basis of college grades, references, etc. The finalists are narrowed down on the basis of written essays regarding some social or public problem.

The interns spend an academic year of study with the Foundation, and in terms of veterans' benefits, this is considered by the VA to be the equivalent of one year of graduate study.

Besides incorporation or annexation studies, the interns have undertaken such projects as administrative studies for county and city managers, codification of municipal ordinances, budget analyses, preparation of handbooks and directories, etc.

These projects are chosen by the interns on the basis of their individual field of study and interest. Miss Priscilla Sternad, Coro's office manager in San Francisco, estimates that the Foundation each year receives about 5 times as many project proposals as it can possibly accept.

These applications come from private businesses, labor unions, and many other types of agencies as well as governmental bodies or officials. (In Carmel Valley's case, the proposal was framed by the Chamber of Commerce, which has made no recommendations regarding incorporation, but believes it would be useful to the community to have an organized body of facts pertinent to the subject.)

The interns are not paid for their services, but expenses which they incur in completing the project must be borne by the agency. (This would include transportation, room and board, stenographic help, publication of the report, etc.)

Projects are supervised by the agency which proposes them, but the intern is counseled in his work by the Foundation staff and by fellow interns. Where project reports are multicopied, 25 copies are required for Foundation use. Coro supplies copies to university libraries, research organizations, etc.

Coro Foundation's San Francisco office is located at 822 Pacific Building, 821 Market Street, San Francisco 3. Its telephone number there is YUkon 6-5314.

GOLLY WHAT A GALLEY

For the last issue of Outlook we wrote of weekend trips of the Gordon Reids and Mrs. Anna Tye.

Apparently the type setter "pie-eyed" the type or tried the pipe as it came off the press stating that the Reids were in San Francisco visiting "her" son, Ashton Stanley. It should have read: Mrs. Anna Tye spent the Easter weekend in San Francisco with her son, Ashton Stanley and his family. The Gordon Reids were in San Simeon visiting Hearst Castle. No harm done however, as Mrs. Reid has given Mr. Stanley back to his mother, Mrs. Tye.

CV Women's Club

The "oohs" and "ahs" were quite audible when Jim Ziegler showed his collection of beautiful slides to the Carmel Valley Women's Club April 1st at the Community Center.

Mrs. Tom Waters was elected president for 1964-1965. Other officers elected to serve with her are: Mrs. John Power, vice president; Mrs. Larry Cummings, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert J. Ziener, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Tom Hefling, treasurer. Directors elected were: Mrs. Thomas McKiernon, Mrs. William D. Wood, Mrs. Frank Porter, Mrs. Karl Kunz and Major Billie Mans.

Following the business meeting tea and goodies were served by Mrs. Jack Lundin and her very able committee. Although it was April Fool's Day the goodies were very real and beautifully served from gold plates, combining silver service, placed on a pale pink table cloth.

And to answer Mrs. Power's question as to what kind of decorations Mrs. Ollason would use for April Fool's Day: The decorations were small-sized umbrellas, up side down, with fresh flowers arranged in them.

Sheriff's Blotter (REPORT COURTESY OF REX PRYOR)

On March 29, Philip K. Panaker of Seaside reported that someone had broken into his 1955 Dodge in the parking lot just beyond Prince's Camp. Windshield, side and rear windows were all smashed. A wrench, flashlight, and $5 in cash were stolen from the car. The vandalism and theft occurred between 3:00 and 5:00 p.m.

On March 30, Frank Murphy of M. J. Murphy Building Materials in Carmel Valley Village reported that someone had opened cans of frozen grape and orange juice and thrown the contents on piles of lumber. On the same day the foreman reported that other incidents of vandalism and also minor theft had occurred at the lumber yard in recent weeks.

During the past few weeks there have been complaints on two occasions that lawn furniture had been thrown into the swimming pool of a home on Country Club Drive. Last weekend -- sometime between 4:00 p.m. on April 3 and 8:00 a.m. on April 5 -- the malfeasants returned and threw black dye in the pool. The complaint was made by Helen Heavey, secretary to Frances T. Hudgins, who owns the house.

BUCKS FOR BATS!

B4B

BY TOM WATERS

Carmel Valley Little League has scheduled its fund raising drive for Saturday, April 11.

The boys, under staff supervision, will canvas the streets on which they live, to collect donations from their neighbors. It is expected that those good souls who love that old game of baseball -- and those who know delinquency and the diamond don't mix -- and those who like the kid next door -- and those who like to watch a ballgame -- and those old pros who used to play themselves -- and those newer parents whose children will soon play ball -- and those who know that good sports and good sportsmanship are good for the future leaders of our community and country.

"And that's not all by any means," said President Les Burdett "altho' it is a lot of people -- a lot of nice people". Les says he is optimistic about this season and the "Bucks for Bats" drive in particular, because "the kids themselves are responsible for that.

The Conlan boys were talking to one of the coaches in the Village on the Friday before Registration Day and when told about the need for funds one of them said, "But if it's for all day Saturday, and we do our street in five minutes, why can't we do other streets where there are no Little Leaguers?"

"How can you beat that?" asks Les, "and the Salyer boy, the La Fave boy and others throughout the Valley feel the same way." Maybe the kids are appreciative and want to feel they are helping too, who knows. But it is a good feeling and makes for optimism".

Ready To Go

"Bucks for Bats" chairman Roger Sherman has the Little League fund drive organized and ready-to-go on April 11 with Carmel Valley divided into 5 areas (and as many coordinators) and 16 zones (with as many managers) for the occasion.

Each zone manager has a staff of 11 Little Leaguers who, promptly at 9:00 a.m. on the appointed day will begin a house to house campaign to solicit funds for the project.

Tom Waters, a team coach and assistant to Little League president Les Burdett, stresses that "Bucks for Bats" is a special drive and will not become an annual one.

This is the first time in seven years that Little League has conducted a fund drive...it was deemed the best possible approach to the problem," Waters said.

New uniforms are needed for the boys, also new equipment such as balls and bats and catching gear.

Additional funds were also needed this year in preparation of the field.

Area Coordinators for the drive are Sherm La Fave, Lin Egli, Hubby Jones, George Eckerd and Larry Musick. Zone chairmen are Will Johnson, Bob Harris, Lee Jewell, Glen De Broder, George Graves, John Upp, Mrs. Stephen Schaffer, Ed Riddell, Al Giordano, Cliff Church, Marvin Huss, Tom Lutton, Mrs. Mary Ferris, Sid Knight, Tom Bottaro and Mrs. Baxter.

Red Cross Fund Volunteers

"They really worked at it -- in some cases they had to go back time after time!" So said Mrs. Ed Leslie, Red Cross Fund Drive Chairman for the lower Valley, of the volunteer solicitors who aided her. These were Mesdames Glynn Lockwood, Will Johnson, Phil Hatton, Jason Harbert, Ed Soberanes, Robert Harris, James Brock, William Wellborn, Roland Percival, and Roy Meadows, Jr.

GEM & MINERAL SOCIETY

BY GALE HOLLOWAY

See you at our meeting Friday night? (It's in the Multipurpose room at Tularcitos School.) Guests are always welcome and there are always interesting things to see, do or listen to: rock quick, drawings, movie, special feature, refreshments.

"Volcanism" will be the featured topic this month, Mr. Milton Bristow of the Monterey Peninsula College geology department the speaker. His talk will be illustrated with slides. Volcanism is one of Mr. Bristow's favorite subjects of study, particularly the Oregon and Northern California volcanoes and lava flows.

Members are asked to bring samples of their volcanic rock for display, as well as any 35-mm slides of volcanic action or scenes. Already we're assured of a few slides other than Mr. Bristow's, and a very short strip of movie film of the Kilauea Iki eruption of 1960 in Hawaii.

PEBBLE PUPS

Ruth Getz, Pebble Pup chairman, states that 18 Pebble Pups have paid for their crystal-growing kits. She hopes they will arrive in time to be delivered at the April meeting.

Welcome aboard to new Pebble Pups Vincent Silva of Monterey and "Benjie" Viljoen of Carmel Valley!

SHOW NEWS

Colonel Gerald Church, USAF (ret.) has accepted the nomination of show chairman to plan and direct the club's "Jubilee of Jewels" show next October 10 and 11, in the Exhibition Hall, of the Monterey County Fairgrounds. The show will be "all new," including the presence of commercial dealers in rock and minerals. From these displays you may see and buy quality materials from many localities of the world. We know we have a prestige area here on the Monterey Peninsula and plan to put on a show to live up to its reputation. Chairmen of committees have been named and are already working.

GOOD NEIGHBORS

There will be several cases from the Carmel Valley Gem and Mineral Society in the Monterey Bay Gem and Mineral Society show this week end (April 11 and 12), at Portuguese Hall on the corner of E. Laurel and Natividad.

XEROX COPIES of announcements, invitations, reports, small pieces of merchandise, etc. can be made while you watch and for a fraction of the cost of photo-static copies. See it happen at the CARMEL VALLEY OUTLOOK office, cor. Delino Pl. and Pilot Rd., CV Village.

COMING TO UC AT DAVIS

A letter this week told Mrs. Francis Whitaker that her son, Dr. Stephen Whitaker, associate professor of chemical engineering at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois, will be a member of the faculty at the University of California at Davis next year.

Dr. Whitaker will come West in September. His wife, Nancy, will arrive a month earlier to find a house in Davis. With her will be the Whitakers' sons, Larry and Jimmy, who are now, respectively, one and a half years and five months old.

Their grandmother is pleased that the boys and their parents will be nearer Carmel where Dr. Whitaker grew up.

SHORT HOP FLIGHT

Mrs. Lila Kawananaoka left Friday morning with a group flying in a private plane to Mexico. Plans were for short flights with stops at Alamos and Mazatlan and the ultimate destination Puerto Vallarta. Mrs. Kawananaoka will be away all next week.

LAWYERS WIVES PLAN DANCE

Thursday afternoon, the executive board of the Lawyers Wives Association met at the home of Mrs. Thomas J. Twohig, vice-president, to plan the group's Spring social event which will be a dinner dance at the Beach Club on May 1. In addition to Mrs. Twohig, board members are Mrs. Michael Panelli, president; Mrs. Ted Morris, recording secretary; Mrs. Roy Anderson, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Nat Agliano, treasurer.

EAST FOR WEDDING

Tomorrow, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Melvin leave for Peoria, Illinois, where they will attend the wedding of their son, Charles, to Ralene Kavanaugh on April 18.

The Melvins moved to Carmel from Peoria last June following Mr. Melvin's retirement from the position of research chemist at the northern regional research laboratory of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

PRE-THEATRE DINNERS

Mrs. Reginald Church is in charge of arrangements for the Candlelight and Wine Suppers preceding performances of "Boy With A Cart", the Christopher Fry play which will be presented by the Parish Players of All Saints' Episcopal Church on April 10 and 11.

Mrs. John Gosling will decorate the tables and hostesses will be Mrs. Charles Downes, Mrs. James Neill, Mrs. Virginia Streeton, Mrs. Lewis Fenton, Mrs. Ralph Thompson and Mrs. A. Brooks

Firestone.

Peter Dyer will head the chefs who will barbecue in All Saints' patio.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Downes are co-ordinators for the parties which will benefit the scholarship funds of Bishop Kip and York schools.

Lead roles in "Boy With A Cart" will be played by Garret Kaufman, A. Brooks Firestone and Yates Downes. Others in the cast, directed by Harry Rudinshield, will be Mrs. Robert White, Mr. and Mrs. Jon Converse, Nancy and Larry Upjohn, Douglas Rodda, Twig Stephenson, Mrs. Beth Zanides and John Roth.

SALE DATE CHANGED

The sale of high fired stoneware created and donated by members of the Carmel Adult School Pottery Class has been changed to April 10 and 11.

Customers in the Book Worm on a recent morning were surprised to find Ritchie McBride, 11 years old, efficiently running the shop with the help of his friend, Hutton Hobbs of San Francisco. Ritchie explained that his young brother, Cyrus, was having his tonsils out and wanted both his parents, Sam and Grace Colburn, with him at the Community Hospital. So Ritchie took over the book shop.

The last time Ritchie was involved in a retail sales venture -- a lemonade stand near his home in Carmel Woods -- he was closed up by the Sheriff. Someone in the neighborhood complained about the intrusion of commercialism in a residential district and the law had to step in and halt the venture.

So! Ritchie really enjoyed operating legally in Carmel's business district the other day. Customers enjoyed the experience, too.

Sparky Ruskell has been campaigning vigorously to be elected Carmel's city treasurer and his bright red scooter has been parked all over town. A feature of the vehicle is an attached wicker picnic hamper painted to match the machine. Last week, while Sparky was exercising his Irish charm elsewhere, we peeked in the basket and can report that it contained liquid refreshment... two cartons of milk. For home consumption we presume.

Two young ladies about seven or eight were walking up San Carlos the other day. As they passed us, the blonde said to the brunette, "I hate beards. They tickle."

Bay School Open House

Sunday afternoon, friends, past and present, former students and teachers, board of education members and school district administrators visited Bay School sheltered by the eucalyptus trees beside Highway One at the mouth of San Jose Creek. The occasion was an open house to show the addition on the north side of the "little red school house."

Until 1952 a one-room elementary school, Bay is now used by the Carmel Co-operative Nursery School which is administered by the Carmel Unified School District.

Hostesses on Sunday were Mrs. Ephraim Doner, director of the school, Mrs. Donald Rico, president of the parent organization, and all mothers of children now enrolled, also Mrs. Richard Hill, social chairman. Those who presided at the tea tables were Mrs. Mrs. Richard Wright, Mrs. Bep Puharish, Mrs. Denise Martin, Mrs. James Toy, Mrs. Richard Wilsdon and Mrs. Sebastian Berdonaro.

Outlook on Carmel

The Outlook Recommends

Editorial

Next Tuesday, voters will decide whether or not to purchase Sunset School for the perpetual use of the citizens of Carmel... also elect three city councilmen, a city clerk and a city treasurer. This will be one of the most important elections in the history of the city.

Sunset School

Every registered voter has received an argument in favor of the purchase of the school prepared and sent out by the city council. The advantages to the city of the acquisition of the two-block site and its buildings are clearly stated.

On the strength of the council's convincing statements, the OUTLOOK recommends a YES vote for the $575,000 bond issue to purchase Sunset School.

Council

Seven candidates are contesting three vacant seats on the city council.

Important qualifications for a good Carmel city councilman are:

- (1) Deep concern for preservation of the unique beauty and residential character of the city.
- (2) Awareness of the fact that a healthy business district is vital to the city's financial welfare.
- (3) Realization of the need for sensible and practical controls to regulate commercial development.
- (4) Appreciation of and desire to maintain the cultural life of the community.
- (5) Willingness to share in the drudgery and uphold the dignity of municipal office.
- (6) Faith in the democratic process which allows unbiased consideration and evaluation of the diverse opinions of Carmel citizens, and councilmen, on almost any matter.
- (7) Readiness to battle gallantly to save a tree.
- (8) A sense of humor.

The OUTLOOK believes three candidates come as close as is humanly possible to fulfilling the above requirements and recommends their election to the city council. They are Mayor Eben Whittlesey, Joseph Danysh and Stephen A. Grant.

City Clerk

Incumbent Hugh Bayless is unopposed for the office of city clerk. The OUTLOOK thinks this is a tribute to his abilities. Each vote for him will show confidence in the city's administration.

City Treasurer

Three candidates are vying for the office of city treasurer. Each is qualified. Incumbent Sam Coleman, a retired banker, has saved the city hundreds of dollars through his knowledge of finance. Stanley Hilbert has ably served as city treasurer in the past. Speirs Russell has the necessary training and is eager to prove his worth. The OUTLOOK bets on Sparky -- to win.

Legacy To Library Totals $161,000

Following distribution of the estate of the late Austin James, the Harrison Memorial Library is in "a nice financial position" Fred Duhring president of the library board says.

How the estate appraised at $161,000 may best be used to benefit the community has been the concern of the board for some time.

It is the desire of the board to broaden and expand the facilities of the city's public library. Several alternatives have been considered. Among these are an addition to the building or acquisition of an alternate location.

The need for more room at the library has been realized for some years. It is the board's hope that further study will reveal how additional space best may be acquired with the James legacy. As yet not decisions have been made.

Citizens work for Yes Vote

Yesterday members of the Committee of Carmel Residents for the Sunset School Site Acquisition Bonds met to map last minute details of their campaign at the home of the committee's chairman, Mrs. D. Douglas MacGregor, who is also president of the Carmel Art Association.

Rear Admiral Fisher (USN Ret.) president of the Carmel Citizens Committee, is a member of the group working for a Yes Vote on Sunset next Tuesday.

The following statement in favor of the bonds from Admiral Fisher has been released by the committee.

"The voters of Carmel, on April 14, should vote to buy the Sunset School property. This will not remove any property from the tax rolls. It will not cause any increase in taxation. The purchase will be effected by part of the revenue from the Motel Room Tax which is more than sufficient to retire the bonds. From a purely financial point of view the value of this property will inevitably increase, so what Carmel is getting is a great bargain. Furthermore, there is no reason why the property may not be self-sustaining until the Carmel citizens themselves have decided the details of its future use."

They go together — the power of God and the triumph of man. One is the source. The other is the reflection. It's an idea worth pondering, for it holds the key to dominion over evil in all its forms. You're invited to hear a one-hour public lecture on this subject by Noel D. Bryan-Jones of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship. The title is: "God Omnipotent Makes Man Triumphant." All are welcome.

Under the Oaks and Among the Cactus

by Mildred Hattan

Enjoying asking holiday during the Easter Vacation were Bettie and Frank O'Neal. Accompanied by the O'Neal children, Mollie and John, and Beau Kvenild, they drove to Heavenly Valley (near Lake Tahoe). Former Valley-ites, Ginnie and Grant Fletcher and their sons, who now make their home in Palo Alto, were also at the resort.

Seven squares danced to calls by Archie Fleming at the Easter Party given last week by the Slipperettes for the Silver Slipper Square Dance Club. Mrs. George Baker was in charge of the clever Easter decorations used on the refreshment tables. A graduation party for the Slipperettes who have just completed dance instruction will be held in the Tularcitos Multipurpose Room April 11 at 8:30 p.m. Otis Hollibaugh of Gonzales will be the caller. The graduation dance is open to the public. Refreshments will be served.

It was bath time for Master Denis Glenn when I called last week to get news about his arrival but he waited patiently while his Mom said that he arrived March 25 at the Community Hospital and weighed 9 lbs., 5 oz. His three year old brother, James Dean, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Dewey live on River Road. His paternal grandmother, Mrs. Edith Dewey is from Monterey.

"Betsy" Schma received a very warm welcome from brothers, Douglas, seven and a half; Peter, one and a half, and sisters, Katherine, six; and Jennifer, three and a half, when she arrived home from the Community Hospital. The little girl who weighed 7 lbs., 14 oz. when she arrived March 19 was formally named Elizabeth Emilie and is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Donald W. Schma of Paseo Robles Drive.

That blue diaper fluttering from the flagpole at the Carmel Valley Inn announces the arrival of Margaret and Tom Oliver's second son, Mark Andrew, who arrived weighing 7 lbs., 15 oz. March 24 at the Community Hospital. The arrival was of special significance to the Oliver's son, David, who had patiently waited to celebrate his birthday until after the baby arrived. Happy birthday, three year old!

Congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. George Garner who recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary by renewing their marriage vows at a morning mass said at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Catholic Church. Here from San Andreas for the occasion and a dinner party for family and close friends were the Garners' daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lavaroni and their three children.

Undoubtedly one of the nicest old fashioned family type celebrations was held Easter Sunday in "the hayfield" above Garzas Road, where several families gathered for an Easter Egg hunt, picnic, potluck luncheon, sack races, kite flying, etc. Attending were The Phil Cordreys, the Robert Wilsons, the Robert Kvenilds, the Jack Swansons, the Carl Buchenroths, the Larry Sweeneys, the Dick Thornburgs, the Fred Nasons, the Bill Lambert, Jr., the Robert Stephensons, the Frank O'Neals, the Fred Dodds, the John Bohlmans, the Tim Condons, the Dick Schaeffers, and the Robert Works.

A large turnout of "subteen" girls attended the Coke Party last Saturday at the Sugar 'n Spice Shop for the presentation of a swimming suit to Vickie Graham. Vicki's name, "Campus Corner" was chosen in the recent contest to name the subteen department.

During the party a Fashion Board was elected and includes Wendy Lefler, Lynn Campbell, and Kristin Reams. The board had its first opportunity to shop a sweater line last week and the new "experts" were allowed to choose styles and colors that they felt girls of their age group will most enjoy wearing. More exciting duties for them will be a trip to market with Mrs. Swiess and Mrs. Garner, where they will lend valuable assistance in shopping for "back to school" clothes.

A speedy recovery to Mrs. J.H. (Charlotte) Kelley who was released from the hospital last week and is recuperating from surgery at her home on West Carmel Valley Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schenck and children - Tere, Jeff, and Gary - were in Santa Monica during vacation week attending the convention of the California Business Education Association. Following the convention they visited with Sharon's parents in Monrovia and with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Walker in Apple Valley. Last weekend the Schencks attended another convention in Sacramento where they were delegates from the Monterey School District Credit Union.

Easter baskets were given as favors when Kathy Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Baker, celebrated her seventh birthday last week. Kathy's big sister, Kim, and her friends, Mollie O'Neal and Vickie Carver had so much fun assisting with Kathy's party last year that they were eagerly drafted by party goers again this year to assist with games and refreshments.

Attending were Beth Wilsey, Marian Doud, Jean Ann Jones, Linda Tedrow, Ann Meyer, Blanca Zarazua, Leslie Drew, Barbara Woods, Sherry Rhoades, Christie Cordrey, Rena and Mary Coughlin.

SCOUT LEADERSHIP INTERVIEWS

Interviews are now being conducted for summer camp positions (a permanent leadership staff of 25) at Pico Blanco Scout Reservation this year. Camp Director Robert Coulter and Assistant Camp Director Maurice Hoag are conducting the interviews.

MPVS

BY MRS. J. ARTHUR WEEKS

Mrs. L. K. Purcell and Mrs. Charles H. Conley are but two of the many Valley residents engaged in planning the MPVS Garden Tour to be held on July 15th. A report was made on committee progress at the General Meeting of MPVS held at the USO last Friday.

Net profits from the Thrift Shop at 785 Broadway, Seaside will be allocated to the Monterey Peninsula Council for the Children's Home Society. Members of the Society will be working during the month with the staff of MPVS in the collection, pricing and sale of all merchandise presented at the shop starting April 1st. Anyone wishing to add to the inventory can arrange for pick-ups by phoning EX 4-5028 or the CHS at 373-3239.

FIRE & FIRST AID

Members of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department were called to Hitchcock Canyon on March 30 at 12:04 p.m. where a brush fire on the Stephen Kahn property had started from a controlled fire by Mrs. Reeford Shea.

First aid calls include March 26 at 11:58 p.m. when J. B. Harlow of 66 Rancho Road was transported to the Monterey Hospital as a medical emergency. March 27 at 2:55 p.m. Alan Dickenson of Chapparral Road was taken to the Community Hospital as a medical emergency. March 28 at 10:28 a.m. Charles Abbott of Hitchcock Canyon was taken by American Red Cross ambulance to the Monterey Hospital as a medical emergency.

High School Parents

Carmel High School principal Warren Edwards has scheduled a meeting in the school cafeteria tonight at 8:00 p.m. for the purpose of organizing a Parents Club.

"...We here in the school, your hired professionals, need to know how you feel about what we are presently doing," Edwards wrote in a letter sent last week to all parents of high school students. "We are anxious to tell you about our plans for the future...and we want your criticisms and suggestions..."

Guest Minister At Community Church

The Reverend William D. Pratt will be guest minister at the Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula this coming Sunday, April 12. Worship Services are held at Nix Studio, 8th Avenue and Mission Street, Carmel, at 10:30 a.m. Dr. Pratt is administrator of Carmel Valley Manor retirement community.

Because Dr. Ronald J. Menmuir has been recuperating from a recent operation, the Community Church will have guest ministers most of this month.

On April 19, the Reverend David Wallace Moore of the Memorial Presbyterian Church of Midland, Michigan, will be guest minister.

By April 26, the congregation is "hoping to have Dr. Menmuir back," according to Mrs. C. W. McDaniel, worship chairman.

Peace Center Movies

"Suburban Living," a 60-minute prize-winning film from Canada illustrating ways in which suburbs in various countries have solved problems in neighborhood improvement, will come to the CV Community Center Thursday evening at 8:00. While the film is by no means for "adults only" its content and the hour of showing are more suitable for grown-ups and youth than for young children.

The Monterey Peninsula Peace Center, which sponsors the movie, will have a special program of animated cartoons and films for children Friday afternoon at 4:00 at the Monterey Library.

PARENTS INVITED Carmelo Students To Hear Electrical Engineer

Recently Miss Eleanor Crouch mailed questionnaires to everyone in the school district in an effort to unearth "community resources," learned and talented people who would be willing to share their knowledge and experience with young people.

One of the volunteers who responded is Stanley Oakes, a sun-tanned white haired retired electrical engineer who for some time has made a hobby of speaking to and writing for children about his subject.

Mr. Oakes will speak in the Multipurpose Room at Carmelo School at 10:00 a.m. tomorrow, April 9.

Like all schools in the district, Carmelo has the traditional "open door policy", meaning that parents and visitors are always welcome to visit and observe classroom teaching at any time.

But Mr. Oakes is particularly eager that parents come and hear the talk that he will give the children.

"First of all, it would give anyone unfamiliar with electricity a basic understanding of this marvelous process which is present in all our homes," said the energetic retired engineer. "But more than that, it is important for parents and children to share some experiences so that they may discuss them later. When Mrs. Oakes and I were raising our boys, we always discussed what we had learned during the day, at the dinner table. In this way one solidifies an education. But the important thing is that parents wake up and realize they are part of their children's education. It should not be left entirely up to the schools."

A final review of the part of the area master plan dealing with Carmel Valley will be undertaken by CV unit of the League of Women Voters Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Henriette Millard, Buena Vista Road, Robles del Rio. The unit will be asked to reach a consensus as to whether the League should give official support to the plan in its present form. All League members wishing to participate in this decision are urged to come.

League Of Women Voters

The meeting is also open to women of voting age interested in learning more about the plan. Copies are available at the Outlook office, Pilot Rd. and Del-fino Pl., for study.

Gardner Reunion

A family reunion at Blue Sky Lodge during the Easter holidays gladdened the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Gardner. Their daughter, Linda (Mrs. Robert Park) arrived with their son-in-law and Lisa, aged 10 months.

Also on hand were Lou's distinguished brother, Dr. John Gardner, with Mrs. Gardner, their daughter Francesca, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Trimble -- another daughter and son-in-law. Both Mr. Trimble and Francesca are graduate law students -- he at the University of California, she at Stanford University.

Dr. Gardner, a psychologist of national repute, is president of the Carnegie Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation. His latest book, "Self-Renewal", was published a few months ago by Harper and Row.

Busy Leslies

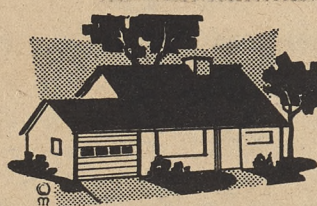

How has Betty Leslie found time to chair the Red Cross Fund Drive in the lower Valley and help prepare for the reception to be given Mrs. Helen Larkey next month-between jaunts hither and yon with her race driver husband? Well, she has.

Although Ed did not add to his glories at the recent Sebring races, he has come in first on both days at two of the divisional races which are being used this year to build points toward the U.S. Road Racing Championships.

The Leslies can be counted on to be on hand locally during the weekend of May 1-3, however -- that's the date for the USRR event at Laguna Seca, just over the hill. Last year's Laguna Seca event attracted more than 30,000 people.

PLANCOM DEFERS ALCAN APPLICATION

Adm. C. Tod Singleton, chairman of the Citizens Committee for Conservation, and Adm. C. W. Fisher, chairman of the Carmel Citizens' Committee and a member of the area planning commission's core committee. Because the land in question is in an area designated by the newly completed area master plan as a park, the application was referred to the latter commission for recommendations.

Granted by PlanCom was an application by All Saints' Parish for a use permit to build an Episcopal Day School on seven and a half acres near the corner of Shulte Rd. and CV Rd., and a zoning permit to put in a car wash next to the service station at Carmel Rancho shopping center.

An application by P.G. & E. to build a service center back of Carmelo School was set for hearing April 28, although the proponents were warned of considerable opposition already expressed by local residents.

XEROX COPIES of announcements, invitations, reports, small pieces of merchandise, etc. can now be made while you watch and for a fraction of the cost of photostatic copies. See it happen at the CARMEL VALLEY OUTLOOK office, cor. Delfino Pl. and Pilot Rd., CV Village.
